CERTIFICATE OF PROFICIENCY IN PORTUGUESE
Level A1 (Basic User I)

2013-2014

Course Title	CERTIFICATE OF PROFICIENCY IN PORTUGUESE – level A1 (Basic User I)
Course Duration	100 class room contact hours, spread over one/two terms or even in reduced time but not never less than a minimum of six weeks.
Pre-requisites	XII standard
Post-requisites	<input type="checkbox"/> Students must score at least 50% of the marks, accordingly to the OB-15.11

Aims and Description of the Course

- This Course is compatible the CEF (Common European Framework of reference levels for languages: learning, teaching, assessment) and it is scaled at the broad level A1 Basic User I (Breakthrough).
 - At this level the student:

Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type; can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has; can interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.
 - Each act of language use is set in the context of a particular situation within one of the domains (spheres of action or areas of concern) in which social life is organized:
 - Personal domain
 - Public domain
 - Occupational domain
 - Educational domain
- The choice of the domains in which learners are being prepared to operate has far reaching implications for the selection of situations, purposes, tasks, themes and texts for teaching and testing materials and activities.
- This Course may be divided in module 1 (A1.1) and module 2 (A1.2). However the end examination will be concluding after completing all the programme of this Course, i.e., module 2 (A.1.2) at a minimum of 100 hours of class room contact hours.
 - This Course may be divided in units, specifying the topics and grammar contents of the syllabus in each one, according to the planning of the teacher concerned who will conduct and assess also the continuous evaluation and the end examination.
 - The Department Council may recommend to the approval of the Vice-Chancellor to incorporate and implement minor changes in the Syllabi/Contents/Contact hours and specific vocabulary and themes, etc., to tailor the Course contents to the requirements of the corporate sector/industry as necessary from time to time.

Objectives	At the end of this Course the student will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> produce simple mainly isolated phrases about people and places. <input type="checkbox"/> describe him/herself, what he/she does and where he/she lives. <input type="checkbox"/> read a very short, rehearsed statement – e.g. to introduce a speaker, propose a toast. <input type="checkbox"/> write simple isolated phrases and sentences. <input type="checkbox"/> write simple phrases and sentences about themselves and imaginary people, where they live and what they do. <input type="checkbox"/> follow speech which is very slow and carefully articulated, with long pauses for him/her to assimilate meaning. <input type="checkbox"/> understand instructions addressed carefully and slowly to him/her and follow short, simple directions. <input type="checkbox"/> understand very short, simple texts a single phrase at a time, picking up familiar names, word and basic phrases and rereading as required. <input type="checkbox"/> understand short, simple messages on postcards. <input type="checkbox"/> write a short simple postcard. <input type="checkbox"/> recognise familiar names, words and very basic phrases on simple notices in the most common everyday situations. <input type="checkbox"/> get an idea of the content of simpler informational material and short simple descriptions, especially if there is visual support. <input type="checkbox"/> follow short, simple written directions (e.g. to go from X to Y). <input type="checkbox"/> interact in a simple way but communication is totally dependent on repetition at a slower rate of speech, rephrasing and repair. <input type="checkbox"/> ask and answer simple questions, initiate and respond to simple statements in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics. <input type="checkbox"/> understand everyday expressions aimed at the satisfaction of simple needs of a concrete type, delivered directly to him/her in clear, slow and repeated speech by a sympathetic speaker. <input type="checkbox"/> understand questions and instructions addressed carefully and slowly to him/her and follow short, simple directions. <input type="checkbox"/> make an introduction and use basic greeting and leave-taking expressions. <input type="checkbox"/> ask how people are and react to news. <input type="checkbox"/> understand everyday expressions aimed at the satisfaction of simple needs of a concrete type, delivered directly to him/her in clear, slow and repeated speech by a sympathetic speaker. <input type="checkbox"/> understand questions and instructions addressed carefully and slowly to him/her and follow short, simple directions. <input type="checkbox"/> ask people for things, and give people things. <input type="checkbox"/> ask people for things and give people things.

Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> handle numbers, quantities, cost and time. <input type="checkbox"/> understand questions and instructions addressed carefully and slowly to him/her and follow short, simple directions of simple expressions about personal details and needs of a concrete type. <input type="checkbox"/> ask and answer simple questions, initiate and respond to simple statements in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics. <input type="checkbox"/> ask and answer questions about themselves and other people, where they live, people they know, things they have. <input type="checkbox"/> indicate time by such phrases as next week, last Friday, in November, three o'clock. <input type="checkbox"/> reply in an interview to simple direct questions spoken very slowly and clearly in direct non-idiomatic speech about personal details. <input type="checkbox"/> ask for or pass on personal details in written form. <input type="checkbox"/> write numbers and dates, own name, nationality, address, age, date of birth or arrival in the country, etc. such as on a hotel registration form. <input type="checkbox"/> copy out single words and short texts presented in standard printed format. <input type="checkbox"/> establish basic social contact by using the simplest everyday polite forms of: greetings and farewells; introductions; saying please, thank you, sorry, etc. use a very basic range. <input type="checkbox"/> use a basic vocabulary repertoire of isolated words and phrases related to particular concrete situations. <input type="checkbox"/> show only limited control of a few simple grammatical structures and sentence patterns in a learnt repertoire. <input type="checkbox"/> pronounce of a very limited repertoire of learnt words and phrases can be understood with some effort by native speakers used to dealing with speakers of his/her language group. <input type="checkbox"/> manage very short, isolated, mainly pre-packaged utterances, with much pausing to search for expressions, to articulate less familiar words, and to repair communication.
Teaching & Learning Methods	Communicative approach and teaching-learning process based on classroom tasks. The emphasis in a communicative task is on successful task completion and consequently the primary focus is on meaning as learners realise their communicative intentions. However, in the case of tasks designed for language learning or teaching purposes, performance is concerned both with meaning and the way meanings are comprehended, expressed and negotiated.

Scheme of Evaluation & Assessment

As per OB-15 the evaluation of this Course will consist of Continuous Evaluation in a form of 4 assessments of one hour each with a total of 40% of the marks assigned to this Course and an end assessment in a form of one Final Examination of three hours, two hours for written exam (40% marks) and one hour for oral exam (20 % marks)), together with a total of 60% of the marks assigned to this Course.
