I am intrigued by the versatility of transition elements in forming compounds that are used in chemistry, biology, and medicine. Since, Schiff base compounds have a broad range of biological properties including antibacterial, chemotherapeutic, antioxidant, enzymatic, their complexes having NO, NS and SNO donor systems have attracted wide attention because of their various applications. During the project of synthesis of pincer Schiff base ligands of Ni(II) and Co(II) complexes with O/N donors, I learnt that the introduction of O or/(and) N, S increases the number of active sites which makes the transition metal complexes more likely to react with proteins and enzymes. Therefore I wish to work on the development of metal ion ligands that exhibit better selectivity and are economical catalysts. Apart from inorganic and organometallic chemistry, I am also interested in biochemistry dealing with viruses and cancer cells. I learnt that transition metal complexes can be used to bind with and neutralize viral proteins, for example, thiosemicarbazone drugs as antivirals. Similar drugs are also used to cleave the DNA in a cancer cell. I am thinking about the effects of using Titanium/Chromium ions with a Schiff base component as a biologically effective, less toxic complex to treat cancer cells. In summary, during the SRPF'22, I wish to work on the analysis and synthesis of affordable and effective biological and catalytic compounds using organometallic complexes. I hope that working on this project will contribute towards increasing the breadth and depth of my knowledge about chemistry.

Dear Prof. Dhuri,

I am writing to you concerning the Joint Science Academies Summer Research Fellowship Program for 2022. You had kindly offered to help in this activity by accepting selected candidates to work with you in the coming summer. I am happy to inform you that we have been advised by the Steering Committee made up of the three Academies Presidents to fix the maximum number of fellowships this year to around 1400 candidates.

Selection Committees for the different disciplines met for 2/3 days in December and have selected students and teachers based on their academic performance, and expression of research motivation and interests. Although the Committees have tried their best to assign candidates to guides based on the preference expressed by the guides, it has not been possible to do so in all the cases.

We are therefore requesting all guides to accept the candidates suggested by the Committees and provide the students/teachers the necessary facilities. We sincerely hope you will accept this request.

Among those selected is the following student (please click the link to get more information on the applicant):

1 Gaur, Ms Kritika (I MSc) Maulana Azad National Institute of Technology, Bhopal
<https://webjapps.ias.ac.in/fellowship2022/candeforguide.jsp?appid=CHES809&rbdnhji=ze56s6ap9j>

It is possible that your own research interests may not exactly match with that of the summer fellow assigned to you. Nevertheless, we feel confident that the experience of being able to work in the research atmosphere of your group will be extremely beneficial to every selected students/teachers.

As soon as we have your acceptance, we shall write a formal letter to this candidate announcing her selection and request her to get in touch with you to fix up the period of work at a time suitable to both of you. We shall be paying her a sum of Rs. 12,500/- per month towards living expenses, and will take care of her round trip travel expenses.

We do hope that you will also be able to help the student with some modest accommodation.

In the interests of the successful conduct of the program we will be grateful for your help in this matter and I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible so that the arrangements can be completed.

With warm best regards,

Yours sincerely,

P.K. Das

P.S.: For some reason you are not able to mentor the assigned student, you may suggest an alternative guide as soon as possible.
