Report on Plateaunica 2024

The most awaited event of the university was finally here. Plateaunica, the annual inter-disciplinary cultural event and DJ night was held on March 21st, 22nd and 23rd at the Shyama Prasad Mukherjee Indoor Stadium. Organized by the Goa University Campus Students Union (GUCSU) for the students to showcase their on-stage as well as intellectual talent, and also provide the students and visitors entertainment with a learning experience.

The teams contesting from the six different disciplines were - MA, Science-I, Science-II, MComm, MCA and MBA. Like every important college event, this event also had pre-event competitions, of these were the Reel-Making competition, the Short-film competition and a speciality of Plateaunica which is the Sell-Well, wherein a conceptual product has to be purchased, and the Discipline which offers the most amount of money will be declared the winner. It was hosted by Mr Ashit Verekar and co-hosted by Mr Rushank Naik and Mr Rudra Prabhu. On the first day of Plateaunica 21st March, all the off-stage events were held, this included street play, Strong Man, Flag Painting, Best out of Waste, Debate, Quiz elimination round, third degree (round 1) and Face-off. The second day began with the entry parade which commenced with great pomp and glamour as students were showcasing how to 'survive the wild' as was the theme suggested. This was followed by the comedy act and face painting. In the afternoon the competitions of the Jugalbandhi, Flash Mob, the second round of the Third Degree and Dance Competition was carried out, the photography competition was held off-stage, for the duration of the entire day. The second day ended with the DJ bash, performed by ex-student DJ Anik followed by DJs Sivan and Chari. The third day was even more exciting, it started off with the entry parade where the theme this time was 'Conflict on the Plateau', the entry parade was followed by the Duet Singing, Mr and Miss Plateaunica, the Mute Beat and to put a cherry on top, the final competition of Plateaunica was the fashion show. The third day of the event ended with the an even bigger bash with the DJ Hrutvik and an international artist DJ Danika who further brightened the moods of the students and visitors. After the DJ performance, the long-awaited time of prize distribution was here, team MCA emerged victorious and Team MBA emerged as the runner up for Plateaunica 2024.

Plateaunica is one of the oldest events hosted in the university. It is celebrated widely for more than two decades and every year it becomes a massive success all due to the efforts of not only the organisers and the coordinators but the widespread enthusiasm, passion and support by the participants and students of the university, hence the GUCSU and other students who played their respective role as the organizers and co-ordinators thanks each one who has worked day and night to make this event successful.
